

Vacancy: Community Program Teaching Artists

Music for the Sake of Music seeks applications for various Teaching Artist positions as part of the Community Program for the 2019 Festival.

Organizational Information:

Music for the Sake of Music (MFSOM) is a Classical Music Festival in Green Bay, Wisconsin. With a focus both on community members and local students, as well as talented collegiate-level students, MFSOM provides opportunities for performance, learning, creation, and engagement of music for a wide audience. The 2019 Community Program will involve more than 200 students of varying ages and abilities.

Responsibilities:

As a Community Program Teaching Artist, your duties will include the following:

- Teach a studio of up to 10 students of varying ages and abilities (potential student range from beginning-adult)
- Perform in a MFSOM festival ensemble

and may include:

- Coach a student chamber ensemble
- Assist at MFSOM events

Potential Opportunities:

- Collaborate with other Community Program Teaching Artists to present a Chamber Recital
- Returning teaching artists may be invited to perform a solo work with the MFSOM Festival Orchestra

Minimum Qualifications:

- Hold or be working towards a degree in Music Performance and/or Music Education

Preferred Qualification:

- Master's Degree or higher in Music Performance or Music Education
- Significant teaching experience with students of diverse backgrounds and ability levels
- Diverse performance experience

Specifics:

- July 19 - August 7, 2019
- $1250 stipend
- Many meals provided
- Housing provided

How to Apply:

- Send CV or resume, cover letter addressing teaching philosophy and interest in the position, and sample of a solo performance (or a link) to info@mfsom.org.
- Please indicate the specific position (instrument) for which you are applying in the subject line of your email.

Questions can be addressed to info@mfsom.org

Application Deadline:

To ensure consideration, apply by date listed on website. Positions will remain open until filled.